Good Afternoon Tammy,

You will notice on my April 2016 financial report that I mistakenly accepted a check in the amount of $1,000 from Ronald Principato. I overlooked that I had already received a donation of $500 from Mr. Principato, which with the $1,000 donation, exceeded the per person donation limit.

In order to correct this oversight, per campaign guidelines, I deposited the check into my campaign account and issued a refund to Ronald Principato in the amount of $500. This refund will show as a negative contribution, per your instruction, on my May financial report.

Please let me know if there is anything further I need to do to rectify this situation. Thank you for all of your help!
