The P5 financial report deadline was August 10, 2018 prior to midnight. You filed your P5 report on August 13, 2018 at 9:41 AM. You reported that you had no reportable activity for the reporting period. Although your P5 report is 3 days late, no automatic fine is assessed because no contributions or expenditure during the reporting period.

State law (Section 106.07(7), F.S.) requires you to file by the dates set in law, either a campaign finance report or, if applicable, a waiver report for the reporting period. Failure to do so may constitute a violation of sections 106.07(1) and 106.19(1)(c), F.S.

Filing officers are required to notify the Florida Elections Commission of any candidate who repeatedly files late reports in violation of chapter 106, F.S., or any failure to file a report or information required by chapter 106.07(8)(d), F.S.

If you have any questions, please contact Kim Hankemeyer at (352) 620-3290.
